

HUMANITARIAN OVERVIEW

AN ANALYSIS OF KEY CRISES INTO 2018

PALESTINE: GAZA

The long-standing blockade and ongoing electricity crisis are likely to continue affecting access and provision of health and WASH services.

SYRIA

Conflict is likely to escalate in Idlib and Eastern Ghouta, and to continue in Deir-ez-Zor, leading to displacement, health, and protection needs.

AFGHANISTAN

Security situation likely to deteriorate with the growing consolidation of control by the Taliban over rural areas, exacerbating food, health, and protection needs across the country.

LIBYA

Conflict, displacement, and mismanagement of migration flows are likely to continue, leading to increased protection, health, and livelihood assistance needs.

IRAQ

High numbers of displaced people returning to their places of origin are likely to have protection, food security, and livelihood needs.

ROHINGYA CRISIS: MYANMAR & BANGLADESH

Food insecurity and marginalisation of Rohingya likely to continue in Myanmar, while WASH and protection needs will remain a priority in Bangladesh.

MALI

State withdrawal likely to lead to deterioration of security and humanitarian situation, increasing displacement and protection and food security needs.

NIGERIA: BORNO

A shift to sporadic attacks will likely continue to restrict humanitarian access and exacerbate food insecurity and health needs.

YEMEN

Humanitarian situation likely to deteriorate, particularly in the south, west, and northern governorates: food security continues to deteriorate, and cholera is likely to continue to spread, increasing health, WASH, and food needs.

CENTRAL AFRICAN REPUBLIC

Conflict is likely to continue and exacerbate internal and external displacement, as well as increase food and shelter needs.

ETHIOPIA

Food insecurity and malnutrition are likely to persist in the Somali region, and WASH will also remain a priority need.

VENEZUELA

The economic crisis, political deadlock, and insecurity are likely to increase health and food needs, and continue to drive displacement.

REPUBLIC OF CONGO

Conflict is likely to continue in the Pool region, causing additional displacement and acute needs, especially food security, livelihoods, and health.

SOMALIA

Food security, nutrition, and WASH are likely to remain top priorities for 2018 as drought conditions and insecurity continue.

DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF CONGO

Continued violence and unrest are likely to result in food security and protection needs, as well as further displacement.

SOUTH SUDAN

Ongoing insecurity will likely result in extreme food insecurity, large-scale displacement, and protection needs.

SUDAN

Security situation is unlikely to improve, while displacement further limits access to normal livelihood activities: protection, food, and health are priority needs.
