1. Grant of Rights

The Company hereby owns all trademarks and service marks associated with the service, including online materials on athletes-usa.com. The Company is the owner of all processes, patentable or otherwise in the Service as a recruiting method ("Methods"). The Company hereby grants the client a limited use license in the right to use the Works and Methods for the term of this Agreement and under the terms of this Agreement. Any training, logos, trademarks, Works or other custom content added by the client, remains the property of Licensee.

2. Terms and Termination

This is a legally binding contract for the term provided herein. The client may use the Athletes USA - Team Roland for the term of the Agreement. The Client understand they have appointed the Company as their exclusive service provider. After the termination of this Agreement, the client agrees that it will not use the Athletes USA - Team Roland program, or any similar variants of the same. Charges to your account are due and payable in full upon receipt of your invoice. Cancellation: In the event of the client becoming injured, failing necessary exams to become qualified or breaching any rules of the governing bodies that lead to the company not being able to fulfill this document the company and client are able to terminate this agreement within (60) days notice, no refund will be issued if such events take place, the client will only need to complete the payment balance for that year period, if the client paid in full for the program no refund will be issued. If the client does not make payment on receipt of invoice on time they will incur a 19% additional late fee charge for the total amount. The company will have the right to terminate services until full billing balance is paid.

3. Indemnity, Confidentiality, Non-Circumvention

The Client agrees that all Intellectual Property Rights in all Materials (whether created before or after the Commencement Date) shall belong to the Company. The Client undertakes that: (a) they shall not copy or make available to others any of the Materials without the prior written consent of the Company; and (b) immediately following termination of this Agreement the Client shall on demand return to the Company all Materials (and all copies thereof) in possession or under control of the Client. Except as required by law both parties shall procure that all confidential information disclosed by one party to the other in accordance with this Agreement or which may at any time until termination of this Agreement come into the other party's knowledge, possession or control shall not be used for any purposes other than those required or permitted by this Agreement and shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed to any third party except insofar as this may be permitted hereunder or required for the proper operation of this Agreement. For the purposes of this Agreement information relating to the business of the Company, its business systems, business processes, business affairs and databases and / or client and supplier lists are hereby deemed to be confidential information. These obligations of confidentiality shall cease to apply to any particular item of confidential information once it becomes public knowledge other than by any unauthorized act or default of either party.

4. Entire Agreement

This Agreement is the entire agreement of the Parties related to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes any and all prior representations, negotiations, agreements and understandings, written and/or oral, between the Parties.

5. Notices

All notices shall be in writing and shall be addressed (a) if to the company, to Athletes USA 800 Brickell Avenue, Suite 1105, Miami, FL, 33131, email admin@athletes-usa.com, or (b) if to the client at such other address and/or facsimile number as such party may have specified by earlier notice to the sender.

6. Amendment

This Agreement may not be amended, modified or changed, in whole or in part, except by a written agreement signed by the Parties.

7. Governing Law

This agreement and the rights and obligations of parties hereto shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the state of Florida, USA, without regard to its conflicts of laws principles. Company and client agree that, in any suit, action or proceeding based in tort or in contract brought connection with terms of this agreement, each of the parties hereto shall and do hereby waive trial by jury to the fullest extent permitted by law, and that the prevailing party in any such action shall recover from the other party all reasonable attorneys fees, costs and expenses incurred through trial and all levels of appeal. Further, each of the parties hereto accepts and irrevocably consents to the personal and subject matter jurisdiction of the state and federal courts in and for Palm Beach County, Florida in any suit, action or proceeding arising out of, or in any way connected with this agreement pursuant to Florida statutes section 685.102.

8. Clients Obligations

The client agrees to respond to any communication sent by the Company to the client within 5 days. If the client fails to respond within 5 days the Company will send final communication notice via email or post. If the client does not respond to final communication notice, this will give the company permission to terminate this agreement and receive full billing balance for that year period. The client agrees to notify the Company any communication between the client and NCAA, NAIA, CCCAA and NJCAA coaches. The client agrees to comply and follow instructions from the company to help them with the college recruiting process. The Client understands they should not be part of any other recruiting service while this agreement is active. The client understands to communicate with coaches within 48 hours from interest/proposals being passed to the client. If the client is paying monthly for the service, the client understands payments must be made on time.
