More Than 800 Local Leaders, Citizen Endorsers Announce Support for Jared Polis' Campaign for Governor

First Wave of Campaign Endorsements Come from Diverse Communities Across Every Region of the State

The Polis for Colorado campaign is excited to announce its first wave of endorsements from more than 800 local leaders and citizens combined across diverse communities throughout Colorado. In less than three months since announcing his candidacy for governor, people from every region of our state are energized by Jared's candidacy and his bold ideas for Colorado's future. Here's who they are and what they are saying:

What citizens are saying:

"Jared is on track with all the issues we care about, especially renewable energy!"

Bart Sheldrake, Golden, CO

"I appreciate that Jared Polis is thinking about the future of our children. I support his pledge to make Colorado the first state to transition to 100 percent renewable energy by 2040. It's a bold, big goal, but we need bold, big thinking right now.

Debra Evans, Manitou Springs, CO.

What elected officials are saying:

"Jared has a bold agenda for Colorado's future and a proven track record for getting things done. A winning combination for exactly the kind of person we need as our next governor."

Ramona Martinez, Former Denver City Council Member

"Jared has always fought for the issues that have mattered most to Coloradans and is exactly who we need to keep fighting for us as our next governor."

Sal Pace, Pueblo County Commissioner
