

THE 4TH ANNUAL MELBOURNE EMPLOYMENT LAW CONFERENCE 2019

SUPPORTER OPPORTUNITIES

ABOUT THE 2019 CONFERENCE

A GROWING INDUSTRY

Our annual employment law conference (held at the Gold Coast in August every year) draws HR professionals and employment lawyers from across the country.

It is one of our most popular conferences and that is why we are repeating this event in Melbourne in February 2019 for all those who couldn't get to the Gold Coast.

This year's employment law conference explores some of the major issues troubling employers and their advisors, from choosing the right engagement type when hiring employees, to managing change and redundancy in the workplace.

We also examine the effect of the #metoo movement, the rising gig economy, as well as how to manage a flexible workplace with inflexible staff.

WHY ATTEND?

Feedback from the 2018 Conference

- One of the best conferences I have attended - up to TEN's high standards!
- Very knowledgeable speakers who refreshingly did not limit their discussion to the legal principles, but offered their insights.
- Quality is exceptional - best conference for learning.
- The standard of presenters excellent and information up to date. Conduct of conference efficient and organised. Good Venue. Availability of WIFI so I could keep in touch with office was very good.
- Great topics Great Speakers Lovely venue

Last Year's Conference Rating

- Satisfaction rating for the conference - 4.7 out 5.0 (94%)
- Respondents rated the presentation score for the speakers as content at 4.6 out of 5.0 , one of the highest ever for a conference of this size.
