About the Mayor's Office of Economic Opportunity: The Mayor's Office of Economic Opportunity (MOEO) seeks to ensure that Los Angeles city's growth results in an increased quality of life for all Angelenos. MOEO engages community partners, leverages resources and facilitates long-term planning and coordination to reduce poverty in Los Angeles. Emphasizing social and economic equity, MOEO focuses on the following economic opportunity policy areas: affordable housing, homelessness, reentry, veteran affairs, Promise Zones and workforce development.

About Data 360: Data 360 is a services firm specializing in building custom platforms using a proprietary combination of big data, artificial intelligence and machine learning technologies. By matching data about job openings with the employment history and current skillsets of Freshstart participants, Data 360 is using its proprietary matching algorithms to recruit and match individuals to specific positions.

About Siedah Garrett: In addition to being an accomplished songwriter, Siedah Garrett is an active philanthropist – using her time, talents and creativity to make a positive difference in her community and throughout the world. She has become the go-to lyricist for special events and social causes, such as co-writing two theme songs for the Special Olympics World Games; the musical theme for the World Expo in Shanghai; the American Idol Gives Back campaign; Fergie's "L.O.V.E. (Let One Voice Emerge)" song to encourage voter participation; her Autism Awareness theme song "It's Time to Listen"; and her benefit single, "Carry On", for the Race to Erase MS charity. Her latest single, "G.H.E.T.T.O.", her acronym for Greatness Happens Even Though There's Oppression, features Grammy and Oscar winning rapper/actor/artist Common; and her as-yet-unreleased single "Every Woman" is intended to encourage and empower young women to study new technology, and to target STEMS for their career choices.
