Chicago History Museum WEDDINGS

A black and white photograph of the Chicago History Museum's neoclassical facade, featuring large columns and a pediment. In the foreground, a bride and groom are walking down the steps, holding hands. The bride is wearing a long white gown and holding a bouquet, while the groom is in a tuxedo. The image is used as a background for the text.

a space

to memories.

Sip cocktails next to one of Chicago's first "L" cars. Dance the night away against a backdrop of Lincoln Park's lush gardens and the glittering lights of the city skyline. Celebrate your life-changing moments in a place dedicated to embracing memories.

Tucked along the grounds of Lincoln Park, steps from the lake, a short cab ride from downtown, the Chicago History Museum is the perfect place to start the story of a lifetime or host a celebration for the record books.
