

LEARN to EARN

Continue climbing by earning a degree with UofM Global.

The truth is that it is difficult to achieve a higher income without additional education. Check out these stats* about average weekly income for each education level:

As you can see, the more you learn, the more you earn. UofM Global is collaborating with the Memphis Fire Department to offer a higher education degree program, RISE: Responders Initiating Success through Education. RISE features the convenience of online classes, opportunities to earn college credit based on workplace training, and a RISE Advocate to help you along the way.
