INFORMATION ABOUT OUR USE OF COOKIES

Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our site.

A number of cookies we use will last only for the duration of your web session and expire when you close your browser. Other cookies are used to remember you when you return to the site and last for longer.

In line with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) requirements, users of sites used within the European Economic Area, must actively accept cookies, this means, that without your express acceptance, Cookies will not be automatically accepted. Upon accepting Cookies, you may at any time change your browser to prevent the collation of such information or to notify you each time a Cookie is set.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive. You can also learn more about cookies by visiting <https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/guide-to-pecr/cookies-and-similar-technologies/> which includes additional useful information on cookies.
