ARTICLE 22- (1) The same disciplinary punishments apply to those who force or solicit others to commit the above-mentioned offences,

(2) When determining the disciplinary action to be taken, the multitude of offences committed requiring the same disciplinary action and solicitation for committing offences in groups are deemed as aggravating circumstances.

(3) Students who have been dismissed from the Institution due to disciplinary action, are required to take all their personal belongings with them when checking out of the dormitory. Any items left behind in the dormitories are collected by the dormitory staff and discarded.

Dormitory Disciplinary Committee

ARTICLE 23- (1) The Disciplinary Committee consists of: the Dormitory Director, acting as the chairman, an assistant Director or an Officer selected by the Director as the principal or reserve member together with the Student Representative. Decisions are taken by majority vote. The Dormitory Director may invite the General Manager to the Disciplinary Committee meetings, as well as faculty members and administrative staff from the University, to consult their opinions. These members invited from the university do not hold the right to vote.

(2) The Student Representatives are elected at the beginning of each academic year, by the students residing at the dormitories. A principal and a substitute Student Representative are elected by secret ballot, from among the residents who have never been subject to any disciplinary action.

(3) The Dormitory Disciplinary Committee resolves the cases assigned by the Director within at most seven business days. Should the violation that calls for dismissal from the Institution pose an imminent threat to the security of students' lives and property, the dismissal process is finalized within 24 hours.

Disciplinary Processes

ARTICLE 24 - (1) The Disciplinary Committee meets at the beginning of each semester to review issues regarding the order and discipline of the dormitories and takes the necessary decisions,

(2) The necessary investigations are carried out by the Dormitory Directorate before a student is referred to the Disciplinary Committee.

(3) Students who violate Dormitory regulations by exhibiting behavior so as to disrupt the social order and discipline are referred to the Disciplinary Committee by the Administrative officials of the Dormitory, together with the disciplinary report prepared by the Committee. The relevant student is asked to present a written or oral statement (provided it is added to the official report) within 3 days as of receiving the notification regarding this issue if he/she happens to be in the dormitory at that time; within 7 days as of receiving the notification if he/she is not in the dormitory at the time. In the event that the student does not submit a written or oral statement or the student is found to be absent from the dormitory without permission, the situation is officially reported. The Disciplinary Committee make their decision in the absence of the student. If the student has committed more than one offense that requires disciplinary punishment, the Disciplinary Committee reviews each case individually.

(4) When imposing disciplinary actions to students, the Director or Dormitory Disciplinary Committee take into account: the nature and severity of the offense, the student's general attitude and behavior within and outside the Institution, the circumstances under which the offence was committed, the student's state of mind at the time of committing the offence, as well as, the aggravating and mitigating circumstances involved.

(5) The Dormitory Disciplinary Committee may extend the inquiry when deemed necessary and assign a member or all the members of the Committee for this job.

(6) Decisions taken by the Disciplinary Committee are written in the Dormitory Disciplinary Board minutes (book).

(7) Any incidents taking place at the Institution that call for legal proceedings are promptly reported to the relevant authorities by the Dormitory Administration. Should any one of the students residing in the dormitories be arrested, disciplinary actions shall be carried out according to the results of the legal proceedings.

SECTION FIVE

Miscellaneous Provisions

Room security and Room card/keys

ARTICLE 25 - (1) Students are required to keep their valuable personal belongings on them at all times. The students are directly accountable for the security of all the furnishings and personal property in the dormitory rooms. The Dormitory Directorate may not be held responsible for any possible damages and losses.

(2) Apart from daily housekeeping services, the Dormitory staff may enter the student dormitory rooms without permission: when deemed necessary to carry out maintenance and repair works; to check whether any contents of the room have been relocated without approval of the Dormitory Management; in case of an emergency situation or whenever the need arises in similar situations.

(3) If deemed necessary, the lockers and personal belongings of the students staying in the dormitories may be inspected by the Dormitory Director and/or assistant Director.

Latest entrance time to Dormitories and Receiving visitors

ARTICLE 26 - (1) Latest entrance time to the Dormitories is 00.00 (midnight). Students are required to notify the Dormitory Directorate in advance by e-mail or by petition if they are unable to return to the dormitory before the time forth in the Regulations or are obliged to spend the night outside the Dormitory's premises, so as to give notice about their whereabouts and duration of their absence.

(2) Students residing in the dormitories may receive visitors between the hours 10:00 – 23:00. Visitors are admitted to and entertained at locations (social spaces within the premises) that are designated for such purposes by the Dormitory Directorate. Visitors may not be taken up to the dormitory floors, rooms, kitchens and study lounges. The residents being visited shall be held responsible for the proper conduct of their guests and for any damages they may cause.

(3) The Dormitory Directorate may ask the residents and their guests to show their ID cards for security purposes or similar concerns. Those who refuse to provide ID may not be admitted into the Institution.

Entering and Exiting the Dormitories

ARTICLE 27 - (1) Students are required to use the QR Code scanner (card entry system) when entering and leaving the Dormitory buildings. If for any reason, they are unable to use the Qr Code system, the Dormitory officers may let them in or let them out by registering their names.

Room Assignments and Requests for Room changes

ARTICLE 28 - (1) When rooms are being assigned to students, the adaptability and discipline of the students involved, as well as their health and physical conditions may be taken into account.

(2) Health reports regarding students' health issues that may affect the dormitory assignment planning process are required to be "Committee Health Reports obtained from a General State Hospital or University Hospital". Any other form of report shall not be accepted. Health reports need to be renewed each year and submitted to the Dormitory Directorate, as specified in the announcements.

(3) Students cannot stay in any room other than the dormitory rooms assigned to them. Students who wish to change the dormitory rooms originally assigned to them have the option to request a change to their room assignment for only once each semester. In that case, they are required to apply to the Dormitory Directorate with the appropriate documentation, within forty-five days as of the start of the current semester. Applying for room change does not guarantee that all students' requests will be granted. Requests for change of room assignments are reviewed by the Dormitory Directorate. Students whose requests for room change are granted may not decline their newly assigned room and they cannot go back to their originally assigned room .

(4) Room change requests made by students who have stayed at the dormitory in the Fall Semester and have applied for the change of their rooms in the Spring Semester, are granted within the bounds of possibility.

(5) If deemed necessary, the Dormitory Directorate may change the room assignment of one of the occupants of a room or all the occupants of the room.

ARTICLE 29- (1) The Dormitory Directorate may decide to put together the occupants of different rooms to fill in any vacancies that may occur due to student withdrawals, during the ongoing semester. In order to fill the existing vacancies, the Dormitory Directorate may apply either one of the following procedures within seven working days, following the departure of a student from a dormitory room:

- 1) The remaining occupants of the room may be moved/tranfered to another room.
- 2) The remaining occupants of the room may find themselves a new roommate/roommates to fill the vacancies in their room, (with the approval of the Dormitory Directorate)

Items not allowed in Dormitory rooms (Confiscation)

ARTICLE 30 - (1) Within the framework of precautionary measures against fire and other imminent dangers, the possession and use of electrical appliances or appliances burning gaseous fuels such as electrical kettles, cookers, ovens, deep fryers, heaters, microwave ovens, toasters, grills, and the like are prohibited in the dormitory rooms. If any prohibited items are detected in the rooms, the Dormitory Directorate makes an official report, confiscates the device and puts it into the storage until the end of the semester.

(2) Upon the request of the student, such items may be returned to the student outside the premises of the Institution. In the event that violation of the foregoing regulations are repeated, the electrical appliances shall be returned to the student at the end of the semester. Students are responsible for claiming their personal electrical appliances within the first fifteen days following the end of the semester. Personal property is presumed to be abandoned if it is unclaimed by the owner within the applicable periods prescribed in the Regulations, without a valid excuse.

Cleaning and such /related issues

ARTICLE 31 - (1) The Dormitory rooms and common use areas in the dormitories are cleaned periodically by the housekeeping staff, within the framework of the schedule determined by the Dormitory Directorate. Aside from the scheduled housekeeping services provided by the Dormitory Directorate, students are personally responsible for keeping their rooms clean.

(2) Students are required to clear/tidy up their rooms and leave the rooms ready for the housekeeping staff to perform their duties. Rooms left in a mess with personal belongings lying around shall not be cleaned by the housekeeping staff.

(3) Students may use the laundry facilities to wash and dry their personal laundry free of charge (provided that they procure their own cleaning materials). The Dormitory Directorate reserves the right to make any changes to the terms and conditions of use of the laundry facilities.

(4) The students themselves are expected to supply the cleaning materials they need for their personal use in their rooms. The dormitory management does not provide cleaning materials to the students for their personal use in their rooms.

(5) Students do their ironing in the rooms designated for this purpose. The irons and ironing boards in these facilities cannot be taken to the students' dormitory rooms.

(6) Every student, who registers to the Dormitory, is consigned a quilt, a pillow, a pique and a spare quilt cover set (bed sheet, pillow case and quilt cover) by the Dormitory Management. The quilt cover sets are sent to be washed every week by the Dormitory Management.

(7) Students who damage the washing machines, drying machines and ironing boards are required to compensate for the cost of the damages incurred.

(8) Students use their own kitchenware (plates, spoons, forks, pots and pans...) when preparing food in the central kitchen facilities available for common use. Students are not to leave behind any clean and/or dirty personal kitchenware or any leftovers on the counters/in the kitchen. Such items or foodstuff found in the kitchens are disposed of by the dormitory staff. Any food cooked in the kitchen must be consumed in the kitchen.

(9) Students may not eat anything in the study lounges. Students are not allowed to keep or consume smelly foodstuff in the dormitory rooms. Any foodstuff belonging to the students are kept in the refrigerators in the dormitory rooms. The Dormitory officers may dispose of any expired, decayed or foul-smelling foodstuff found in the refrigerators. Students are responsible for cleaning the refrigerators in the dormitory rooms.

(10) Students are responsible for any personal belonging left behind in common areas such as the kitchen, WC, student lounges and the laundries. The Dormitory Directorate cannot be held responsible for the loss or damage of any valuables belonging to the students .

Health issues

ARTICLE 32 – (1) Students who experience any kind of health issues are informed by the Dormitory officers on how to access the healthcare centers in the vicinity. In case of a medical emergency, a dormitory officer calls an ambulance and the student is referred to a healthcare organization, accompanied by the dormitory officer or a friend of the student.

(2) Students who have been observed to be violating the Dormitory's community living regulations by the Dormitory management or are reported by their roommates for doing so, may be referred to the Counselling Center within the structure of Bahçeşehir University.

Liability to damages

ARTICLE 33 - (1) The student who registers to the Dormitory agrees, acknowledges and undertakes not to harm the other students, the property, assets, employees of the Institution and any third parties; otherwise to be exclusively liable for any wrongdoings; to compensate for any damages incurred in the Institution within the context of the Regulations hereby. The clause on liability for damage shall also apply to any other acts and/or behaviour that are not explicitly specified in these Regulations, but damage to the Institution directly or indirectly.

Enforcement

ARTICLE 34 - (1) These Regulations are effective as of the date they are approved by the Board of Trustees.

Execution

ARTICLE 35 - (1) The execution of these Regulations is in the trust of the Dormitory Directorate under the supervision of the Bahçeşehir University Administration.
