
Housing Loan Program

To help eligible employees with the high cost of purchasing a home in the Bay Area, the School offers a shared appreciation Housing Loan Program to eligible employees. This program supplements a conventional mortgage with a second loan from the School for the purchase of a primary residence within commuting distance of the school, helping employees expand their home-buying power and making home ownership more accessible.

- Benefit-eligible, exempt status Faculty and Athletics Coaches in good performance standing and who have completed at least one performance review cycle, may qualify for the program.

For Additional Information

For further details and information about the Housing Loan Program, including qualifying conditions and program limitations, please contact Menlo's Chief Financial Officer.