

---

---

What is a Partial Authorization?

Posted: Oct 20, 2016

A partial authorization occurs when a payment card authorization is attempted for a transaction and there are not enough funds available in the account to cover the full amount. The issuer returns an authorization for the amount available in the account, leaving you to obtain an additional form of payment from the customer for the balance.

---