

Join us as a sponsor at this year's 3rd annual Feline Science Symposium, taking place October 5, 2019 at the San Francisco SPCA!

Our Symposium attendees will be a diverse group that includes cat care professionals, shelter staff and volunteers, in addition to dedicated cat owners. We expect an audience of 150-200 participants. Sponsorship of the Symposium is an excellent opportunity for you to reach your target market and industry insiders.

This year's Symposium speakers and presentation topics are:

- Shelter Cat Social Cognition: Using Science to Increase the Welfare of Cats Living in Shelters – Dr. Kristyn Vitale, Oregon State University
- Improving Cat Welfare During Handling and Restraint – Dr. Carly Moody, Charles River Laboratories
- A Feline-friendly Breakthrough for Managing Cat Allergens – Dr. Michael Lappin, Colorado State University
- Thinking Outside the Bowl: How to Feed Cats – Dr. Mikel Delgado, University of California, Davis
- The Forgotten Kitten Project: Socializing and Adopting Older Fearful Kittens – Ann Dunn, Cat Town
- Adoptability and Behavior Profiles for Shelter Cats: A Guide for Intake or Outcome Decisions – Dr. Jeannine Berger, SF SPCA
- Fighting Fungus with Facts: SPORE Ringworm Programs at the SF SPCA – Laura Mullen, SF SPCA
