Dear Erica,

Weather Update - All Areas

Update on service impacts due to weather.

Currently we are able to move freight in all lanes to position for delivery. While we were able to reduce much of the backlog in the last 24 hours there still remains trailers to move to Eastern WA and Idaho markets from our Portland Hub and Western WA. We anticipate being able to have the remaining trailers moved over the weekend.

All local operations are running as many deliveries as possible today. Trouble spots remaining due to snow/ice, flooding or road closures are Blaine WA, Clearlake CA, and various areas serviced by our Redding CA terminal.

We sincerely appreciate your patience and understanding during these severe weather conditions.

Thank you,

Eric Vander Pol
