Subject: Weather Update - 2/27/19

Dear Erica,

Weather Update - 2/27/19

Updates on snow and weather impact for 2/27/19:

Eugene, OR and Bend, OR are both closed today due to additional snow and ice.

Most of the Oregon Coast will not be serviced today.

Once again, freight in/out of Reno, NV from Northern CA and the PNW was unable to move last night due to all highways being closed in those directions. We have drivers standing by for when passes reopen to fire up and go today.

Interstate 5 in Oregon is open but very slow moving.

We continue to thank you for patience and understanding during a difficult weather month this is turning out to be. We will continue to strive to Bring Peace of Mind to all of our customers, but must keep the safety of our people and the motorists we share the road with in mind.
