Hello,

Below is an update from Estes & OD:

Estes Express:

“Due to the current weather situation and terminal status’ in different parts of the country, Estes is imposing a freight Embargo for freight into certain areas of the country effective immediately. Embargoed areas are as follows:

TX entire state...all inbound freight

OK entire state...all inbound freight

PNW(Washington and Oregon) inbound from the states of: ME, VT, NH, MA, RI, CT, NY, NJ, PA, MD, DE, VA, WV, OH, IN, MI, IL KY, NC, SC, GA, FL, AL, TN, MS

Northern California inbound from the states of: CT, IL, IN, KY, MA, MD, ME, MI, NC, NJ, NY, OH, PA, VA, VT, WI, WV

Arizona inbound from the states of: CT, IL, IN, MA, MD, ME, MI, NJ, NY, OH, PA, VA, VT, WI

We will keep everyone advised when this embargo is lifted.”

Old Dominion:

“We are extending the embargo for all shipments bound for the state of Texas through this coming weekend, Sunday February 21st.

Weather conditions and power outages in that area have not improved significantly and we currently have several thousand trailers tied up with freight bound for that state. We have no way to move loads into that area and no customers are open to receive it anyway.

Temperatures for this coming weekend and all next week are predicted to improve dramatically so we expect our service centers in that area to begin receiving and processing inbound cargo over the weekend and early next week. We will give you a further update on Monday.”

Thank you,

Alexia Duschene
