Invest in health: Put gift vouchers from Urban Sports Club under the Christmas tree

Berlin, Germany, 20 August 2020 – Christmas is a time for reflection and 2020 especially has brought new challenges and has highlighted that health is more important than anything. So if you want to give your loved ones a valuable gift this year, hand over a digital voucher from Urban Sports Club and make a sustainable investment in their health.

It's a familiar scenario - it's Christmas Eve and gift shopping hasn't even begun. For those who want to save themselves last-minute panic-shopping and give a gift with meaning, then consider an Urban Sports Club membership. The fitness and sports flat rate can be perfectly adjusted to the needs of the members. This year check-ins, i.e. visits to partners, don't just take place in studios, but online via livestream too. More than 10,000 partner locations in six European countries offer courses ranging from HIIT, dance and yoga to swimming or martial arts. And the relaxation factor is not neglected either, thanks to an extensive wellness offer. Vouchers for M, L or XL memberships are available to purchase so this gift can adapt to the needs of the recipient and the budget of the giver.
