

Case Study

“Partnering with SaaSy was so easy! I was apprehensive about working with a partner. We were getting some heat based on not hitting lead times and customers not being satisfied with us going over our expected lead times. At that point, we knew we needed help setting up additional features.”

The Problem

- Scalability for growth
- Numerous process management tools
- Effectively collaborating with suppliers

The Impact

- Saved 1 working day per week
- Now generating accurate lead times
- Fully informed team
- Automation for customer communications

The Result

- Effectively communicating with customers
- Elevated CX through communication and meeting deadlines
- Utilising monday.com through multiple locations across
- Heightened process efficiency
