Today it is used as museum, displaying statutes, pottery and especially coins.

Thu, 3rd December: Corinth – Acro-corinth – Nafplion – Tolo

Our morning excursion out of Athens takes us by the Saronic Gulf, where in 480 BC history's root was changed! The small Grecian fleet managed to defeat the enormously powerful armada of the Persians. From here, via the historic Corinthian Canal, we arrive at ancient Corinth (Acts 18:1-18). It was to Corinth, this megalopolis where the apostle Paul came and worked, established a thriving church, subsequently sending two of his epistles now part of the New Testament. Here, we see all of the sites associated with his ministry: the Agora, the Temple of Apollo, the Roman Odeon, the Bema and Gallio's Seat. The small local archaeological museum here is an absolute must! In Romans 16:23 Paul mentions his friend Erastus and we will see an inscription to him at the site.

After the visit we will climb up to Acro-corinth, actually the acropolis of Corinth which is crowned by a Venetian citadel. It is situated to the southwest of the ancient city and rises to an elevation of 1883 ft. [574 m.]. Today it is surrounded by walls that are about 3 km. long. The current walls were built and rebuilt by the Byzantines, Franks, Venetians, and Ottoman Turks. Writing of days prior to Paul, Strabo said that the Temple of Aphrodite owned one thousand temple-slaves and prostitutes! Thus the reputation of Corinth was well-known. After the tour we will have lunch in a local restaurant.

We will then drive onto Nafplion and check-in at hotel in Tolo. Dinner and overnight. (B,L,D)

Fri, 4th December: Mycenae – Epidaurus – Nafplion

After lunch, we will continue on to visit Epidaurus: the Sanctuary of Asclepius, ancient god of healing. Here we'll see the best-preserved ancient theatre in all of Greece, famous for the harmony of its design and the perfection of its remarkable acoustics, easily accommodating 12,000 people. After the visit we will have free time in Nafplion, the picturesque city which was the first capital of modern Greek State back in 1830's. Return to hotel in late afternoon for dinner and overnight in Nafplion. (B,L,D)

Sat, 5th December : Isthmia – Cenchreae - Athens

At the southern end of the Corinth Canal is the site of ancient Isthmia, once the major local religious centre (devoted to Poseidon, god of the sea and the boy-god Palaimon) and location of the biennial Isthmian Games. We will see only the foundations of Poseidon's temple (7th century BC) and the remains of a starting gate for track events in the adjacent, vanished stadium. In the local museum unique exhibits include panels of painted glass or stone embedded in a resin matrix. They were intended to decorate an Isis temple but were never used owing to an earthquake in 375 AD. The Apostle Paul merely visited the Isthmian Games during his first stay in Corinth (I Cor. 9:24-27).

After lunch we will return to Athens. On our way we will see the ruins of early Christian 5th century basilica in Cenchreae. In the afternoon we check-in at hotel in Athens for dinner and overnight. (B,L,D)
