

POCKET CO.

1. Art submissions are promoted by Little Red Pocket Co. Pty Ltd (LRPC) - ABN: 51 646 107 851.
Email Address: art@littleredpocketco.com
2. The art submissions may have a theme or other criteria at the discretion of LRPC.
3. Entry is open to children 16 years of age or younger that have been diagnosed on the autism spectrum.
4. The child entrant must have parental/carer permission upon submitting their artwork. By submitting the artwork, LRPC assumes such permission has been given and the parent/carer agrees with these Terms and Conditions.
5. Parents/carers and child entrants must provide the following details with submission of the art: Full name Date of birth, Email address Contact phone number, Full residential address A high resolution image of the artwork in digital form only.
6. The submitted digital images of the artworks will be collected and retained by LRPC until the winning entry is determined for each art competition. At its discretion, LRPC will select an overall winner from the submitted artworks for each of the 3 art competitions per year. The decision of LRPC will be final. The overall winner will be entitled to the prize money.
7. In determining the overall winner and confirming entry criteria is met, LRPC will conduct an interview with the child and parent/carer. This interview may occur by video technology (eg. Zoom) or telephone, to the satisfaction of LRPC.
8. The prize for the overall winner of each of the art competitions will be $5,000.00 AUD prize money. Payment of the prize money will be made electronically in AUD currency to the bank account of the entrant nominated by the parent/carer.
9. Taxes of any kind applicable to the prize money in any jurisdiction are the responsibility of the entrant and/or parent/carer. LRPC accepts no liability to any taxation authority in any jurisdiction.
10. The parent/carer and the child entrant affirm that the artwork (and any part thereof) as submitted, is their own work and they own all rights to it. LRPC is indemnified by the parent/carer for any liability whatsoever arising from artwork submitted for a child that is not authentically theirs.
11. The parent/carer and the child entrant agree that upon submission of the artwork to LRPC the artwork becomes the property of LRPC, and all rights are transferred to LRPC at that time absolutely, in consideration for the artwork to be considered for the art competition prize. Upon determination of the winning artwork entry that qualifies for the art competition prize, LRPC agrees to relinquish all rights over submitted artworks that were not successfully selected as a winner for that competition.
12. The selected winning artwork will be used by LRPC to design, produce and sell LRPC branded products (such as clothing) which will include the artwork as the design or feature. The parent/carer and the child of the winning artwork agree that they will have no rights of any kind in respect of LRPC products which may bear the design of the submitted artwork.
13. The parent/carer and the child entrant of the winning artwork agree that LRPC is authorised to use the submitted artwork and to make changes (eg. printing/colour limitations) to the artwork, as may be required to design and produce LRPC branded products. LRPC will endeavour to retain the integrity and essence of the artwork to the extent possible.
14. The winner of each art competition will be announced publicly on LRPC social media platforms.
15. Entries may be chosen by LRPC for digital display and promotion on their website and all other social media platforms. By entering the art competition, the entrants give permission for LRPC to promote their name and art entry on its websites, social media and other platforms at the discretion of LRPC.
16. LRPC will collect, manage, use and disclose personal information in accordance with all relevant legislation and standards as per the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). LRPC will take reasonable steps to securely store such information from loss, misuse and unauthorised access.